

Andy Tyler

5/10 Bury St, London, EC3A 5AT

Tel: 020 7256 3985

Fax: 020 7256 3991

atyler@bdcookesolutions.com

Andy has nearly 40 years experience in the London Insurance market. Starting in 1968 he worked for 15 years with a Lloyds syndicate before joining B. D. Cooke as Deputy Claims Manager. During his tenure at B D Cooke where he progressed to Managing Director he has gained significant experience in both current and run off business.

Key Skills & Abilities

- Proactive problem solver.
- Strong communication skills.
- An in depth knowledge of the US legal system as it relates to insurance (litigation, arbitration and mediation).
- An in depth knowledge of the UK arbitration process.
- Experienced negotiator.
- Ability to work successfully with other companies.

Key Achievements/ Experience

- Experience in managing a major London market underwriting pool.
- Experience in dealing with companies with differing financial strengths...
- Taking a lead role in APH claims including representing his company in the following London Market Groups.
- Asbestos Working Party
- The ad hoc Railway Group
- The Environmental Claims Group
- The London Asbestos Strategy Review Group (LASR)
- The Environmental Claims Reinsurance Group
- Experience in litigation, arbitration and mediation including the negotiation and settlement of major claims either on behalf of the London market or for the BD Cooke companies alone.
- Has successfully commuted Reinsurance books of business with major U.S. Insurance Companies.
- Has successfully pursued reinsurance recoveries either through discussion or arbitration.
- He is a Director of LMCS and has been for many years.